

Remembering the Sesquicentennial of the Civil War
Civil War Soldier Memorial Ceremony

CIVIL WAR
SESQUICENTENNIAL

Honoring

Pvt. Scott Carnal

Company K
79th U.S. Colored Infantry
U.S. Civil War

Seriously Wounded by Enemy Fire
at Battle of Honey Springs, Indian Territory (Oklahoma), July 1863

Died: June 7, 1917
Burial in Dayton Cemetery
Dayton, Nevada

*Memorial Ceremony to be held
Sunday, June 7, 2015
2 PM*

Dayton Cemetery

(From Reno or Carson City: In Dayton turn left at the stoplight on US Hwy 50E at Main Street. Follow Main Street through Old Town and uphill to the left as it becomes Cemetery Road. The Cemetery is at the top of the hill, below the water tank. The Ceremony will be held just past the single flagpole. Handicapped parking and seating will be available.)

*Reception with Light Refreshments after Ceremony
Dayton Museum (Shady Lane at Logan, Old Town Dayton)*

[Located in the 1865 Dayton Schoolhouse, which is celebrating its Sesquicentennial year]

Hosted by: Historical Society of Dayton Valley

Other organizations contributing:
K.I.A. Ghost Soldiers Motorcycle Club
Nevada Civil War Volunteers
Northern Nevada Black Cultural Awareness Society
Patriot Guard

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Gen. Wm Passmore Carlin Camp 25
University of Nevada Cadet Band
War Veterans Memorial Association of Western Nevada

For more information contact: Linda Clements (HSDV), clements@775.net, 775-246-0505 or John Riggs (Camp 25), JohnCKR@yahoo.com, 775-358-7119